

The Olympiastützpunkt Leipzig advertises at the earliest possible date the position as a

Coach (male/female) at the Bundesstützpunkt Judo Leipzig

range of duty:

- planning, realizing and analysing of the training process regarding the national squad (female) and the youth squad (female) in Leipzig
- development of individual training schedules for the athletes
- coordination of measures associated to daily training sessions
- securing of the DJB- training documentation for supervised athletes
- specific supervising in order of the DJB/JVS at central training courses and competitions
- sport-specific consulting and supervising of the schools in Leipzig, which are sports-orientated and offer Judo in their sports-specific lessons
- cooperation in education and further education

Requirements:

- successful finished studies in sports sciences or graduated coach or coach with first level national licence
- high competence in sport-scientific requirements
- sport-specific competence in structures and systems of high performance sports, especially in Judo
- national/international experience and success as a Judo coach
- social competence and high willingness for teamwork with coaches and athletes
- ability and willingness for future-orientated work and development
- sociableness, commitment, flexible working hours

The engagement is orientated at the 2020 Olympics. For now the engagement is limited in time until December, 31st 2017.

The place of employment is the Bundesstützpunkt Judo in Leipzig.

Please send your detailed application with photograph, copies of school certificates, evidence of qualification and former functions until (latest) February, 25th 2017 to:

Olympiastützpunkt Leipzig
Herrn Dr. Nowack
Am Sportforum 10
04105 Leipzig

Explanations: DJB - Deutscher Judobund - German Judo Association
JVS - Judoverband Sachsen - Saxonian Judo Association